BLAKE'S RELEASE CAUSES SURPRISE

His Chief Counsel Says He Never Expected to Hear of Bogus Lord Being Sane.

The discharge of "Lord" Charles N. W. Blake, who has three wives, from the Western State Hospital for the the Western State Hospital for the Criminal Insane at Marion, as a sane man, has caused no end of amazement. Attorney J. L. Jeffries, former State Senator from Norfolk, who was chief counsel for Blake when he was placed on trial in the Hustings Court here on the charge of bigamy, in an interview yesterday, said Blake's release was a complete surprise to him.

"I had no intimation," said Mr. Jeffries, "that an effort was to be made

SKIN TROUBLE BEGAN WITH ITCHING

Could Not Rest Day or Night. Sores Itched So Would Scratch Herself to Pieces. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured in Two Weeks.

Glenns P. O., Va. - "My baby's trouble began with an itching and then a little bump would come and she could not rest day or night. The trouble affected her whole body. The a head and the corruption looked like thick matter, kind of a yellow color. The sores itched so badly until it seemed to me she would scratch herself to pieces and itched so badly until it then a sore would form and her clothes would stick to her body and pull off the little scab. In some places she would scratch and irritate the sores until they seemed to be large. She was affected about a year. "First I employed a medicine which did very little good; next I used ——— and ———— that did harm. So I wrote for a sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I bathed her body in warm water and Cuti-Ointment and they afforded relief after twice using. I bought some more Cuticura Soap and Ointment and inside of two weeks she was cured." (Signed) Mrs. J. R.
